Snowmobile plunges through ice, Glenview man drowns

A 49-year-old Glenview man drowned in Lake Catherine last Friday evening when the snowmobile on which he was riding plunged through the ice.

The sheriff's department said the accident happened about 100 yards from the north shore of the lake, not too far from North Ave.

The police said Rufus Barclay was riding a snowmobile driven by Anthony McCander, 40, of Palatine, who was pulled out of the icy waters and taken to the home of Paul Bay, who lives on North Ave., just west of Antioch.

The village rescue squad treated McCander before taking him to Victory Memorial Hospital.

Barclay's body was recovered about two hours later by the Antioch fire department's underwater recovery team.

Fishing Derby attracts thousands

By CHARLES P. RAYMAN

With a kindly benediction from Mother Nature in the form of perfect weather, more than 6,000 avid fishermen, dog fanciers and outdoor enthusiasts took part in the annual Northern Illinois Conservation Club and 885 Civic Club Ice Fishin' Derby on Channel Lake last Saturday and Sunday.

The Lake Villa-based Midwest Sled Dog Club carried out a full schedule of timed races for prizes and honors and throngs of visitors were closely following the events.

Beautiful huskies and malamutes and their owners showed how it's done and kept the crowd's attention throughout the series of races. Photographers also had a field day in shooting the interesting action.

THE CROWDS CONVERTED the lower end of Channel Lake into a small community dotted with shelters and

Antioch Fire Department; Dave Shapiro, Jim Mahr, Fire Chief Tod Mapletorpe and Explorer advisor Wally Mitchell. The manikin is called "Resui-Annie."

Explorers learn to save lives

About 650,000 people in America died suddenly in 1977. Perhaps if they had received CPR, their chances of surviving would have been increased.

CPR (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation) is the basic life support system of external heart massage. It is the act of manually working the breathing and circulatory system for someone whose heart and lungs have stopped functioning automatically.

CPR training is one of the community service activities of Antioch Explorer Post 88, sponsored by the Antioch Fire Department. In December of 1977, serious CPR training started.

THE EXPLORERS, BORROWED a lifelike manikin called Resui-Annie to practice on. They were then instructed by Wayne Parthun of the Antioch Fire Department and Lake Villa Rescue Squad.

Six members of the Post trained and passed the first phase of the course, the basic rescuer. The members are Jeff Smouse, Jim Mahr, David Shapiro, Paul Mapletorpe, Tracey Curtis and Post Advisor Wally Mitchell.

"We are now planning to go for our instructors certification," said Smouse. "This will enable us to actually instruct citizens on how to perform CPR. We will then be holding classes in CPR for groups of citizens and industry who want to be able to perform CPR and perhaps save the life of a friend, employee, or someone you have never seen before."

The Explorers also hope to raise money to purchase a Resui-Annie of their own to aid in the instruction of CPR.

"Mr. Barr said the Chamber has arranged for "three local dignitaries to speak to us on Antioch today and Antioch of the future." They are Mayor Michael Haley, Antioch High School Supt. Warren Polley, and the high school's business manager, who is also chairman of the Antioch village planning commission, Ken Wierschem.

"Each will present the subject matter as it affects his specific area of endeavor. After each speaker's presentation, there will be a short question and answer period. This is a good time to bring up those questions you have always wanted to ask about our town but never had the opportunity."

Wife's health has slowed campaign: Robin

A Republican candidate for Lake County sheriff, Harry G. Robin, has issued a statement reaffirming what he called his strong commitment to the primary campaign, "and to dispell the unfounded rumors due to his absence from a number of party affairs during the past few weeks."

Robins said that he and his wife have returned from New York "in connection with a recently diagnosed problem with Mrs. Robin's health."

ROBIN, WHO received a number of party endorsements during his absence, said he "appreciates those who stepped forward to represent me at the meetings I could not attend. The momentum of the campaign has not been interrupted."

Mrs. Robin said certain questions remain regarding her well-being but, she said, "My health has nothing to do with this campaign. It is not an issue. Harry is prepared to campaign as strongly as ever to win this election, and you'll find me with him most of the time."

ROBIN, WHO is also a member of the Lake County Board and Grant Township supervisor, expressed special thanks to State Rep. Betty Lou Reed who stood in for him at recent gatherings.

Robin's opponent in the Mar. 21 Republican primary is Tom Brown, an assistant chief investigator with the sheriff's department. Brown is on leave to run for office.

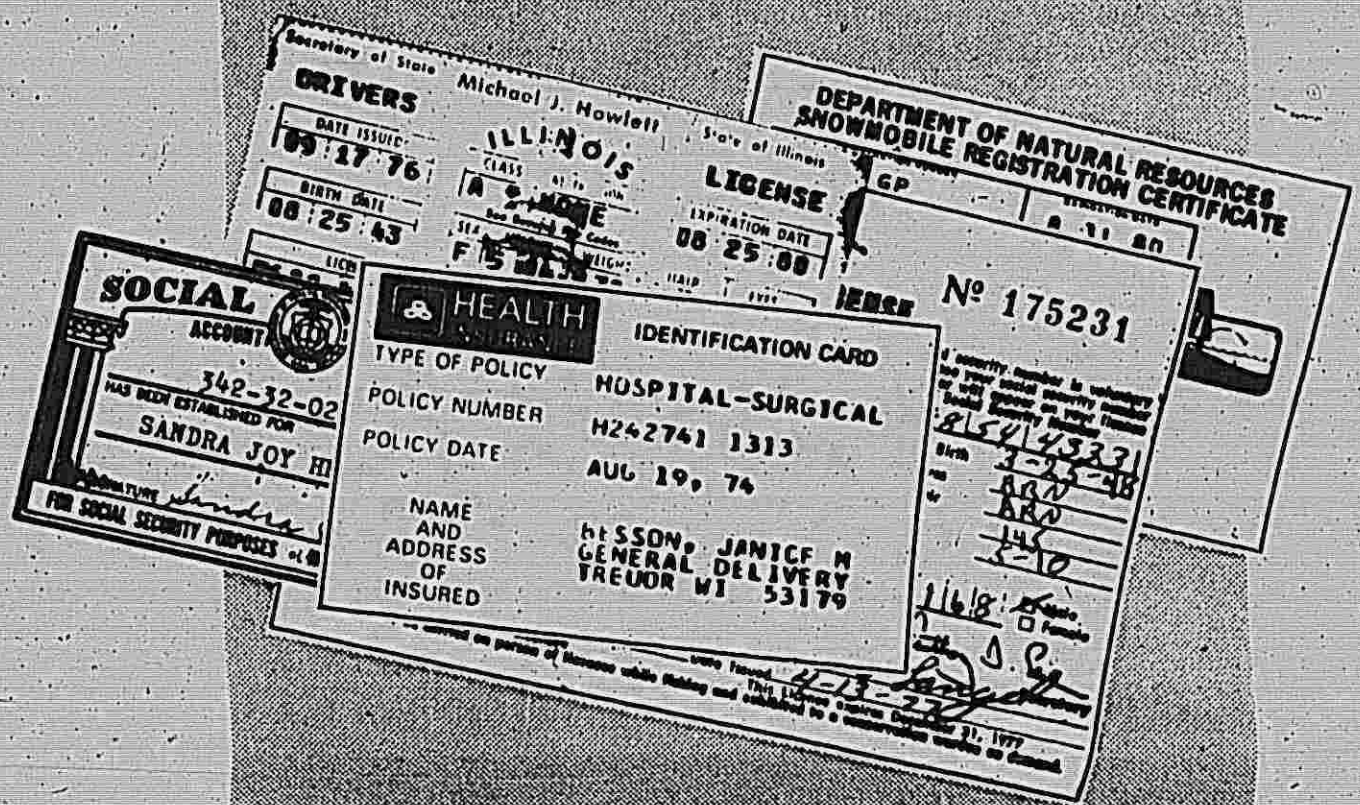

It is expected that the Republican primary winner, Robin or Brown, will have to oppose incumbent sheriff E.J. LaMagdeleine, a Democrat, in the general election.

Thousands of wives and sweethearts in this country received Valentines yesterday that started out by saying: "I've half a mind to ask you to be my Valentine..." Then, when they looked inside, the card said: "The other half wants to ask Sophia Loren."

HOPEFULLY, THE RECIPIENTS of those cards have a sense of humor.

Every Feb. 14 I get half-hearted compliments like that. Good sport that I am, I will now share with you the Valentines I received yesterday. (The three dots in each message indicate the pause while you open the card.)

One came with a picture of Lucy, Charlie Brown's friend, and she says: "It's Valentine's Day and the way to a man's heart is through his stomach ... Be my Valentine or I'll punch you in the stomach."

Another pictured Charlie Brown saying: "I got to thinking about you at lunchtime today and I got so excited ... I tied my peanut butter sandwich in a knot."

I DON'T KNOW which of my admirers sent the rest of the cards, but here's what they said:

"If you're looking for sex on Valentine's Day, I can tell you where to find it ... on page 1,334 in Webster's unabridged dictionary."

"Which would you rather have -- a million dollars or me? ... That's about the way I had it figured."

"When I think about you I feel all good inside, all nice inside, and all warm inside ... Sort of like I swallowed an entire baked potato."

"ARE YOU FREE on Valentine's Day? ... If not, I'll go as high as $2.95."

"Without you on Valentine's Day, I won't have anyone to kiss ... The only thing my dog, Ralph, can do is shake hands and he won't even do that unless I promise him a ride in the car."

"Hey, baby, guess what I got you for Valentine's Day? Here's a clue: it comes in a huge, red, heart-shaped box and is loaded with calories ... It's a huge, red, heart-shaped box of mashed potatoes."

"At last! A Valentine designed specifically for Dirty Old Men ... and inside is a small bar of soap."

THAT'S OKAY, I CAN take the insults.. Later this week I'll be getting my valentine from Sophia Loren.

It would have arrived yesterday but, as you know, the postal service from Italy isn't what it used to be.

THE TOWN CRIER

SAW JIM FIELDS at lunch Monday and told him I had a 38 at Spring Valley that morning, but that I wasn't going to play in the afternoon.

"What's the matter?" he asked. "Don't you like the game?"

Too often these days that Vince Lombardi philosophy "Winning isn't everything, it's the only thing," is put ahead of the old Olympic Games these, "It isn't whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game."

We find it refreshing to know that Antioch Community High School would rather win by fair means or not at all.

Ten days ago, for example, Antioch won a holly-contested conference wrestling championship by 1 1/2 points. Afterwards, wrestling coach Ted DeRousse received this letter from the high school's principal, Art Blecke:

Dear Ted,

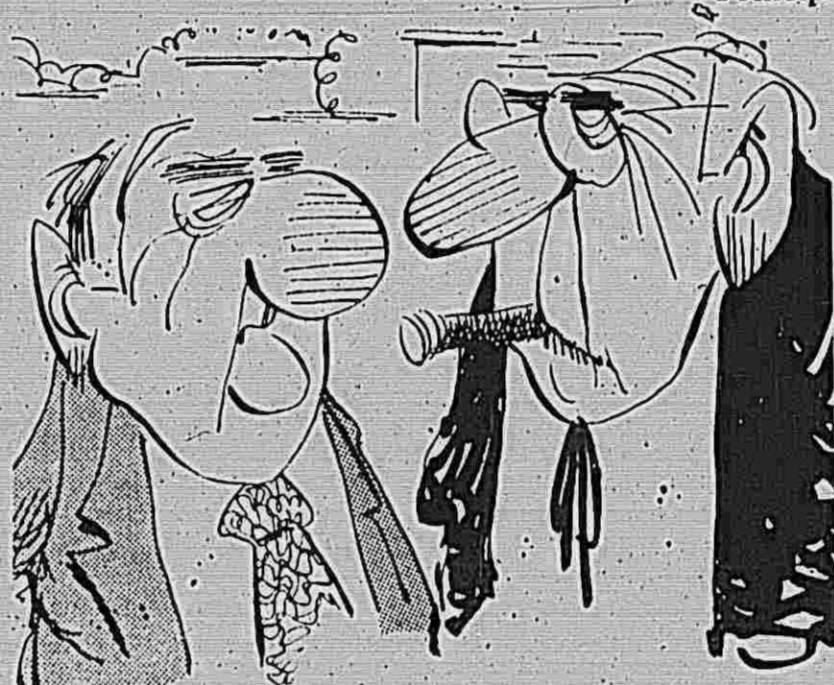

I would like to take this opportunity to commend you for the action you took at the conference wrestling tournament. It was reported to me by our athletic director, Mr. Ward Lear, that during a point of contention as to whether a fall had occurred or not, prior to the end of the match, the official asked you your opinion. Your complete honesty in indicating the fall had occurred after the match, actually caused your team to receive two less points for the meet. Had you not answered at all, the official would probably have decided in your team's favor.

The fact that you indicated what was right and not what was expedient, is a model which I would hope all our coaches, faculty and students would emulate.

Congratulations on your championship without the two points in question.

Respectfully,
A.E. Blecke

The California Ice Company finished their ice house on Tuesday forenoon, being the last one in this vicinity to complete the work. This company is a new one in the locality but since acquiring the land and erecting the house at Lake Marie they have spent a large amount of money in the community, all receiving a share of their patronage. The president and general manager, Jos. Moudry has made many friends, not only with the towns people, but also among those employed during the ice cutting season.

Charles Blunt was the victim of a surprise party on Thursday evening of last week, when about thirty of his friends gathered at his home at Grass Lake to spend the evening. Cinch was indulged in and the evening was very pleasantly spent by all.

40 YEARS AGO: FEBRUARY 17, 1938

Amid a profusion of flowers and gifts, and surrounded by her near relatives and friends, Mrs. Rockwell D. Emmons today is celebrating her one hundredth birthday. For 93 years she has been a resident of Antioch and has been in her present home at 393 Lake street for 45 years. She is the only resident of Antioch, so far as the records reveal, who has ever attained the age of 100 years. Her many friends are rejoicing with her over her rare achievement.

Dr. and Mrs. G.W. Jensen left yesterday for Springfield where Dr. Jensen, as president will preside over the 56th annual meeting of the Illinois State Veterinary Medical association, which is in session today and Friday at the Abraham Lincoln Hotel.

"How much you pay me for to go to school?" That was the question asked of William Morse, of Lake Villa, who was appointed recently by the Public Works Administration as chief instructor to conduct citizenship classes for aliens in Antioch and adjoining townships. The alien who asked the question has been a resident of Illinois for over 30 years and just forgot to apply for citizenship. "Now he wants to be paid for going to school to learn the American way," Morse commented.

20 YEARS AGO: FEBRUARY 13, 1958

Two weeks ago a decision was made to have a surprise birthday party for Bill. But one week ago Bill's house burned.

He is now living with his daughter in Melrose Park.

After learning of the party plans, Bill's daughter agreed to bring him to Antioch for the party. It will be Thursday at 1 p.m. in the basement of the Methodist Church.

WE HEAR ELMER ZIMMERMAN is doing fine after suffering a mild heart attack in Sun City, Calif., where he and his wife, Gert, are spending the winter months.

Elmer called Marty Lasco, who handles his income tax, and said he just got out of the hospital.

Marty asked Elmer if he was keeping up on the local news and, of course, Elmer said: "Sure, I get the Antioch News every week."

Hope we see you soon, Elmer, and that you're fit as a fiddle.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN SCHAEFER (Mrs. Schaefer is the former Wanda Springer of Antioch) had a baby girl on Saturday, Feb. 4. Little Lisa Ann Schaefer and her parents are living in Rapid City, S.D., where John is stationed at Ellsworth Air Force Base.

ONLY TWO MORE WEEKENDS remain to see the song and comedy team of Dickens & Doll, performing at Vi's Yellowbird.

Through Feb. 26, they will be on the bandstand starting at 9:30 on Friday and Saturday nights. Their "Salute to America" show begins at 11:30 on those nights.

You'll enjoy Jack Dickens' comedy skits and especially his version of "Fiddler on the Roof."

Doll, whose real name is Teri (she's a pretty young school teacher from Chicago) not only sings nicely but plays the saxophone, banjo and guitar. They've been packing them in at the Yellowbird, on Rte. 173 in Channel Lake.

On Sunday nights Dickens performs alone, or with Vi Johantgen, from 8 o'clock till 12 midnight. Amateur singers and musicians are invited to come up on the bandstand and join them.

Let's keep Antioch shoveled

The young woman waited in her stalled car until two young men walked up and volunteered their help.

"I'm out of gas," she said. "Could you push me to the service station?"

They got behind the car and pushed it several blocks. One young man saw they had passed a service station.

"How come you didn't turn in there?" he called.

"I never go to that station," the girl shouted back. "They don't have my brand!"

TODAY (Feb. 15) is the 80th birthday of one of Antioch's best-known residents -- Robert J. Wilton.

Mr. Wilton, who lives on Victoria St., came to Antioch from Pittsburgh, Pa., when he was 2 years old.

He worked for the Charles-Lux electric shop at 924 Main St. from 1922 until 1939, then took over the business, which became Wilton Electric Shop. Mr. Wilton worked in the same store for 55 years until the business was closed last November.

Robert J. Wilton

His son, Robert C. Wilton, was mayor of Antioch from 1973 to 1977 and now lives in Mundelein where he is operating his own TV antenna and Maytag service business. Mr. Wilton's other son, Bill, lives in Antioch and works in DesPlaines.

Robert J. Wilton knows an awful lot of Antioch history and it's always a pleasure to talk with him about "the good old days." He is a past president of the Lions Club, a former member of the fire department and the Masonic Lodge, and was on the village board about 40 or 45 years ago, making him the oldest living former village trustee.

Judy Lynn Bjork weds Matthew Homer

Maribou trimmed the velvet hooded cape outlining the gown Judy Lynn Bjork designed for her wedding in the First Nazarine Church in Kenosha.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bjork of Antioch exchanged vows with Matthew John Homer, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Homer of Salem, Wis., at a mid-afternoon ceremony officiated by the bridegroom's grandfather, Salvation Army Maj. (Ret.) W. Arthur Homer.

Jamie Morton of Wisconsin Dells, Wis., was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Terry Runyard, Julie Gutowski and Janet Bjork, the bride's sister.

Michael Homer of Indialantic, Fla., was best man for his brother. Groomsmen were another brother, William Homer, Kelly Yunker and Duane Kadlec.

A reception was held at the Valley Supper Club in Kenosha and the newlyweds honeymooned at Lake Lawn Lodge in Delavan, Wis.

The bridegroom works at the Wilmot Ski Hills and the bride is employed by American Hospital Supply Corp. in Waukegan.

They are living in Camp Lake, Wis.

Gage Brothers Park and sawmill are hot projects now

A group of Antioch residents are working hard toward the completion of Antioch's sawmill restoration project ... with dedication ceremonies scheduled July 4.

Attending the Feb. 1 meeting at the State Bank were Mayor Mike Haley, Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz, Chamber of Commerce president Bill Patterson, high school superintendent Warren Polley, recreation director Sue Koppa and trustee Barney Barnstable.

Also on hand were Gus Costoff, Dick Stroner, Walt Shepard, Gene Zannini, Bill Brook, Dr. Jim Kopriva and others.

THE SAWMILL, PATTERNED after the one Hiram Buttrick built on Sequoit Creek in Antioch's early days, will be one of the state's best projects resulting from the 1976 bicentennial year. It will be a "working" sawmill, of educational value to Antioch students and a tourist attraction for people traveling through the area.

The sawmill will be part of a new Antioch park, called Gage Brothers Park, after the village's first land owners.

HANK AND RICKY APOSTAL, last year's Antioch

VIP's incidentally, are in charge of the grand opening celebration. They will report on the July 4 festivities at the sawmill committee's next meeting -- Wednesday night, Mar. 1, at the State Bank.

The committee still needs money to complete the project -- about $12,000 to get the saw running and $22,000 to have a complete park. Groups such as the American Legion, Rotary Club and VFW are making contributions.

GUS COSTOFF HAS SUGGESTED that a tape recording, telling the history of the sawmill, be available during tours. He has offered to donate the tape recorder.

It also has been suggested that senior citizens be asked to help conduct tours.

Fieldstone is still needed for the wall of the creek and persons who can donate such stones should contact Mr. Shepard, superintendent of public works, at 395-1881.

State Bank offers laminating service for Dollar Days

The State Bank of Antioch will be participating in the Antioch Chamber of Commerce "Dollar Days" celebration by offering a free card laminating service on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, during regular bank lobby hours.

State Bank personnel will be on hand during this three-day service to laminate your wallet-size I.D. cards such as social security, driver's license, Medicare, membership cards, or any other cards you may have that need special attention. The limit is three cards per person.

It takes less than a minute to complete the lamination process. Your cards will be fed into the laminating machine and in 20 seconds the State Bank CARD-GUARD laminator will seal any card, for a lifetime of use, between two layers of clear, transparent plastic film that will not break or crack, peel or discolor.

You can spill water, oil, dirt or grease on the surface of your laminated card ... and simply wipe clean. Your cards will be tamper-proof, as it is impossible to remove the plastic film without destroying the card.

All about town ...

By LINDA WALKER

Sporting goods store coming soon.

Bill Patterson and Tom Robinson, co-owners in BJ's Sports, are hoping to open the doors near the end of March. The store is located at 927 Main St. (Corbin Travel Agency's former location).

Bill said the store will carry a variety of sporting goods but will provide any item upon special request. In other words, if you require a special item that is not in constant demand, BJ's Sports will "special order it" for you.

The new store will connect with BJ's Fashions for Men, and Bill plans to continue to provide the Antioch area with dependable friendly service.

THE ANTIOCH CHAMBER of Commerce and Industry will feature its annual Dollar Days promotion this week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

A vast majority of Antioch merchants are participating in Dollar Days, so check the list of businesses which appear in the special ads in this issue.

This is the final winter reduction sale on a variety of merchandise, so don't pass it up. The bargains are unbelievable.

STAN TOTON OF STANLEY'S Men's Fashions has a torn up sidewalk in front of his door. I asked him what happened, and he told me it was from advertising in The Antioch News.

"So many people saw my ads in your paper and rushed over to shop, they tore up my sidewalk."

We think you have a great men's clothing store, Stan, but find that hard to believe. But then again...

RITTENHOUSE AND EMBREE is getting a facelift. Gail Flister has been busy painting the showroom at the lumber company on Depot St.

You did a very neat job, Gail, but you're far too attractive to be hiding behind that silly hat.

IF ANY OF YOU have visited our office, you are totally aware of the disorganized state we operate in. So you can imagine the surprise when I walked into the office last week to find a new desk and chair replacing the Civil War model I had been using.

I'm sure it's no big deal to most of you, but I'm sure glad a leg no longer falls off my chair every other time I sit down, and it sure beats having desk drawers that are laying on the floor.

Thanks much, boss.

(Boss's note: We got tired of seeing Linda fall on the floor.)

Woman's Club 'thinks mink'

By Florence Pedersen

The Antioch Woman's Club's Feb. 6 program, "What You Always Wanted to Know about Mink but Were Afraid to Ask," presented by Ron Gengel of Countryside Furs, Lake Villa, was interesting and informative.

Members learned about raising mink from mating to pelting. In a fashion show, fur coats and jackets were modeled by members Jean Rockow, Dolly Radke, Carol Hamlin, Irene Williams and Kathleen Cirone.

NEW MEMBERS PRESENT were Mrs. George (Judy) Phillips, Mrs. Joseph (Doris) Veith and Mrs. John (Irene) Teresi. Other new members include Mrs. Martin (Joan) Baurer, Mrs. Joseph (Bonnie) Eder, Mrs. Walter (Mary Ann) Hill and Mrs. James (Bonnie) Litchfield.

The hostess committee included Ardis Anzinger, Nancy Zitkus, Florence Babusek, LuGene Nissen, Rosebud Sunich, Vera Horton and Ann Connors.

A BOOK HAS BEEN donated to the Antioch library by the club in memory of Evelyn Deininger.

Georgia Miller has accepted the duties of corresponding secretary.

On Saturday, members of the woman's club will help at the free pap, breast and colon clinic at the Antioch Clinic.

Money collected at each meeting will be donated to the Antioch sawmill project.

THE TENTH DISTRICT Illinois Federation of Woman's Clubs will hold a ways and means luncheon and variety show - "Melody of Spring" on Apr. 6 at the Chateau Ritz in Niles. Members and guests are invited to attend. Tickets can be purchased from Jean Rockow.

The next meeting will be Monday, Feb. 20, at 1 p.m. at the First Bank of Antioch.

St. Ignatius plans services for Lent

Saint Ignatius Episcopal Church of Antioch is holding a special series of Wednesday evening services during Lent, open to all interested Christians living in the area.

Reverend Theodore Bessette, rector, spent several weeks planning sessions with parishioners, developing a sequence of programs "designed to share insights into the grade and gore of discipleship today."

"Each of the services will demonstrate one of the many varied liturgical developments available in the recently approved Book of Common Prayer in addition to an address by one or more outstanding Episcopal lay leaders," Rev. Bessette said.

Services will begin at 7:30 p.m. each Wednesday at St.

Ignatius.

The schedule of speakers, topics and liturgical services is varied.

Wednesday, Feb. 15 - Jeanne and Jim Haake will present "The Handmaid of the Lord," a dramatic reading of a meditation concerning the living faith of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Wednesday, Feb. 22 - Lorraine Cerk and James Sloma will share insights they have discovered in the development of faith and the power of Christian love.

Wednesday, Mar. 1 - Eugene Brown, cantor, will lead the Great Litany and will speak on "What does it mean to belong?"

Wednesday, Mar. 8 - The Rev. Iris Meyer, deacon in the Episcopal Church in Blue Island, Ill., will conduct a worship service and give a Lenten talk.

Wednesday, Mar. 15 - Jim Haake, lay reader of the Episcopal Church for the past 30 years, will demonstrate how God continues to exercise His power through men and women in the world today.

On Wednesday of Holy Week, March 22, the final service of the series will be conducted by Fr. Bessette as a part of the daily masses and special services that are part of the observance of Lent and Holy Week in the Episcopal Church.

"There is no charge for attending any of these services and all men, women and children are encouraged to join us as we worship God and Jesus Christ this Lent at St. Ignatius Church of Antioch," Fr. Bessette said.

Sikorski attends seminar

Patrick S. Sikorski of Antioch and Patrick M. Carrigan, Country Companies insurance agents in Lake County, this month completed the companies' intermediate school.

The four days of intensive sales training were conducted in the home office in Bloomington.

The Country Companies include Country Life, Country Mutual, Country Casualty and Mid-America Fire and Marine Insurance Companies.

In the intermediate school an agent develops "Risk appraisal" techniques and is introduced to advanced life, health, fire and casualty needs evaluation. A case study technique is used in which the class studies and analyzes the financial and personal history of a model Illinois farmer.

The school is part of a training program designed to develop the County Companies agent into a professional "general practitioner." The program helps the agent gain a working knowledge of all lines of insurance in his portfolio before he begins specialization.

High school pays tribute to Teague

A recognition social hour in honor of Mr. H. Ivan Teague was held at the Antioch High School cafeteria.

From the board of education "staff recognition committee," Mrs. Bette M. Meyer presented Mr. Teague with an anniversary clock.

Mr. Steve Wapon, president of the ACHS Education Association, presented Mr. Teague with an engraved wristwatch.

Mr. Teague retired at the end of the first semester of the 1977-78 school year after teaching mathematics at ACHS for the past 18½ years.

After a long-awaited rest, the Teagues will travel through the southwestern states and "just take it easy, day by day," he said.

Frosh win streak snapped

Antioch's freshman basketball "A" team had its eight-game win streak broken by the Warren Blue Devils last Saturday. The score was 38-30 and was the first conference loss for the young Sequoits.

Antioch still holds first place but only one game ahead of second place Warren and Stevenson.

COACH NORM Hahn lamented the fact that his charges chose a very inopportune time to play their poorest game of the season.

For the first time this year the taller Sequoits were out-rebounded by an opponent. The Blue Devils controlled both boards by a 23-16 margin.

This, combined with top many turnovers and fouls, brought about the defeat.

"Antioch simply did not play with much intensity. No players scored in double figures," Hahn said.

ON MONDAY a new win streak was started as Antioch downed the host Panthers of Round Lake, 56-32. The win upped the Sequoits' record to 12-1 in conference play and 13-4 overall.

A big fourth quarter broke the two-game listless spell and got the team back in the groove. Dee Maras led in scoring with 13 points and in rebounds with nine. Pete Weber and Tim Koeser each hit for 10 points and Mark Pomazak added eight. As a team Antioch shot 59 percent from the field.

Antioch's "B" team claimed two victories over the weekend to bring its conference record to 11-1 and overall record to 11-3. In a tight contest Warren fell victim by a 28-26 score. Tom Poulos and Dan Rezin had good games and led scoring with six points each.

At Round Lake the junior Sequoits prevailed 45-32 as Kevin Hassett scored a season-high 16 points.

ANTIOCH'S TWO freshman teams will entertain Grayslake Saturday morning at 9 a.m. and then journey to Grant Monday for an important game.

NAMES in the NEWS

THREE ANTIOCH students were among those named to the Dean's List at Millikin University in Decatur.

They are Christina Lindberg, a junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lindberg of rural Antioch; Cindy Plotz, a junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Plotz of 573 Highland, Antioch and Vicki Plotz, a senior, also the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Plotz of 573 Highland.

The Dean's List consists of students who completed at least 12 graded hours of academic work during the semester and earned at least a 3.5 average on a 4.0 scale.

GOOD PSYCHOLOGY

Many psychologists say that what goes on in your head can be affected by what goes into your mouth. People who eat the right amounts of the food they like are more likely to be alert, vital and in a good frame of mind.

PM&L does well with tough play

By JERRY PFARR

I have always felt that dramatist Arthur Miller had two significant achievements:

1. At the age of 34 he wrote a play, "Death of a Salesman," which won a Pulitzer prize.
2. He lasted five years, from 1956 to 1961, as the husband of Marilyn Monroe.

UNFORTUNATELY, DEPENDING on how you look at it, of course, it is the first achievement that is the concern of this review. Because "Death of a Salesman" is the task being undertaken by Antioch's PM&L Theatre.

It is a difficult task and, because of that, we will give the local thespians oh, let's say an 8, on a scale of 1 to 10. At least that was our impression last Saturday on opening night.

The play will be repeated this Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. and again on Friday and Saturday nights, Feb. 24-25. Opening night attracted an almost-full house, so it might be wise to make reservations by calling 395-3055.

MAKING "DEATH OF a Salesman" a success at the downtown Antioch theatre are some perfectly-cast performers.

It is hard to believe that anyone could handle the role of Willy Loman better than George Blanksten does. Also, Anne Marie Cina is flawless in the role of Willy's wife, Linda. They are thoroughly believable in their parts and the play seems to move along at a brisk pace, even though its theme is a depressing one.

It is the story of a salesman in his early 60's who, after giving the best years of his life to his company, is rewarded by being fired. Fired, in fact, by the son of his former boss and friend.

FRANK GREENWOOD, WHO does an excellent job in the role of Willy's friend, Charley, sums it up at the end when he says:

"A salesman has to dream ... it comes with the territory. He's a man out there riding on a smile and a shoeshine, and when they stop smiling back it's an earthquake."

Director Ken Smouse, stage manager Elda Minger, the lighting crew and the others responsible for the OUTSTANDING IN THEIR ROLES on the opening night of "Death of a Salesman" at PM&L Theatre last weekend were George Blanksten as Willie Loman and Anne Marie Cina as his wife, Linda. The play resumes Friday and Saturday nights in downtown Antioch with the curtain rising at 8:30 for each performance.

Wayne King orchestra to feature Pedersen

Lloyd Pedersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Pedersen of Antioch, will be singing with Wayne King and his orchestra later this month.

Lloyd is familiar to local audiences, having graduated from Antioch High School and Northwestern University. He was active in the drama department of each, not to mention his roles in PM&L productions of "South Pacific," "Music Man," "Take Me Along," "Spoon River Anthology," and "The Fantasticks!"

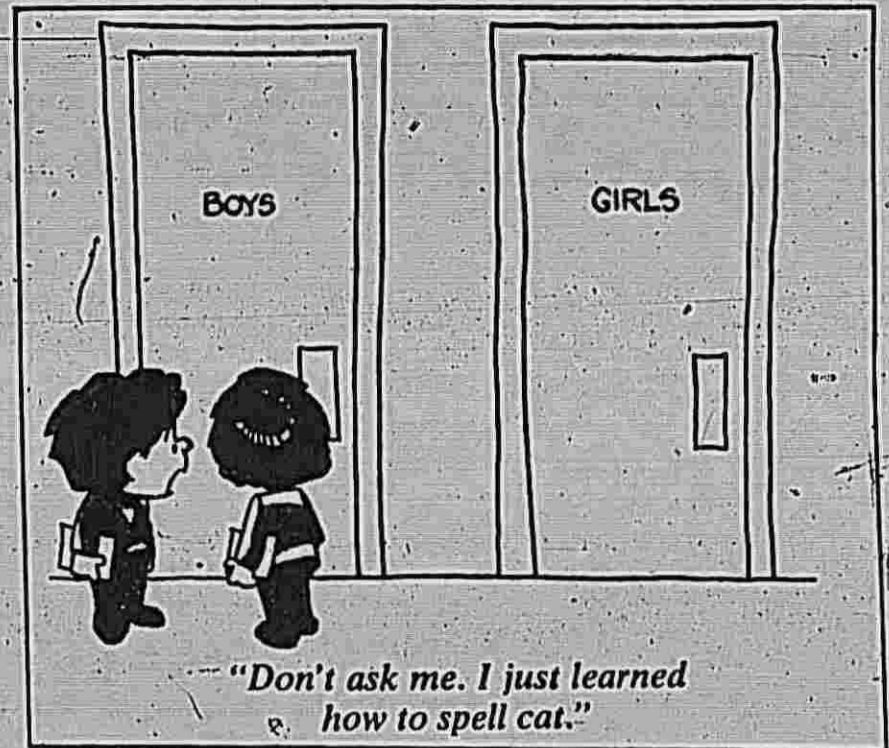

Lloyd recently brought his own night club act, which has appeared throughout the U.S. and Canada in the past five years, into the Lincolnshire Marriott Resort's Main Brace entertainment room, where his scores of friends and relatives helped break all attendance records in the Lincolnshire night spot.

LLOYD'S UPCOMING TOUR with Wayne King marks the second time he will join the famous bandleader. Lloyd was the orchestra's featured vocalist from 1970 to 1972. He will leave Feb. 23 for one month's tour through Florida and will appear again when the Wayne King orchestra comes to the Chicago area in May.

When not traveling with Wayne King, Lloyd continues to be busy with his own orchestra. Last month he finished a successful engagement for the Associated General Contractors Convention in Minneapolis and will be appearing at the Registry Hotel there this June.

Besides performing, Lloyd is a prolific writer. He has plans for a book of poetry and prose and a second record album, to feature many of his own compositions.

Keith Ellenwood of Wildwood brought in a 10 1/4" crappie to qualify as a winner. A 14 3/4" bass won for Dale Conklin of Ingleside and Rich Misch of Round Lake hauled in a super walleye, measuring 27". That catch won Rich the prize for largest fish of the Derby.

No weak links in PM&L cast

production deserve credit for their effective use of the small stage. The performers deserve credit for carrying the play right through two rescue squad sirens from across the street.

BY LIGHTING CERTAIN parts of the stage and blacking out others, the flashbacks into Willy's life are effective. Most of them concern his sons, Philip Hunter as Biff and Bill Serhson as Happy, who handle those roles about as well as anyone could expect. They aren't easy.

Biff, in particular, is disenchanted with his father because he accidentally found him in a hotel room with "The Woman."

"Salesmen get lonely," Willy tries to explain.

Biff later calls his father "a liar, a fake, a phony."

But Willy's devoted wife defends him against his sons:

"I don't say he's a great man, but a terrible thing is happening to him. The man is exhausted..."

THE DEPRESSING THING about "Death of a Salesman" is that all of us know a Willy Loman. Some of us are Willy Lomans and some of us will become Willy Lomans. Maybe that's also why the Pulitzer prize committee decided it was a great play.

By the way, once again, we failed to find a weak member in a PM&L cast. We liked the work of Jim Bakula, Pam Hill, Gary Richter, Frank DiMarco, Edla Minger, Tony Salvo, Dee Baum and Geri Di Marco.

We think you will, too.

Selection of VIP begins here tonight

A committee of seven persons has been selected to choose this year's Antioch VIP.

The annual VIP dinner will be held on Saturday, Apr. 15, at St. Peter's social center.

Rev. Francis Q. Kub, moderator of the event, said he will be joined on the selection committee by Michael J. Haley, Mayor of Antioch; William E. Brook, president of the State Bank of Antioch; Lucian McClean, a teacher at Antioch High School; Rev. Philip O. Laurin, pastor of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church; and Mrs. Carol Hamlin, treasurer of the Antioch Woman's Club, and Mrs. Monika Coyle, one of the co-chairmen of the dinner-dance.

THIS WILL BE THE 10th annual VIP dinner. Honored in previous years were Jim McMillen, W.C. Petty, William E. Brook, Rudy Eckert, Albert L. Dittman, Fern Watson, Elmer and Gert Zimmerman, Herman Holbek and, last year, Hank and Ricky Apostol.

NOMINATIONS CLOSED SUNDAY and many ballots were received Fr. Kub said.

"The committee has been chosen with much consideration and covers many aspects of our community," he said.

The committee will meet tonight (Wednesday) to begin selecting the person or persons to be honored this year.

Friends honor future resident of Moosehaven

By JERRI POLSON

Sunday afternoon a farewell surprise party was given by the Women of the Moose, assisted by the Loyal Order, for Harriet Grewe, who will soon become a resident of Moosehaven in Florida.

Harriet smiled and cried simultaneously as Gerri Mark, in a "This Is Your Life" program, concentrated particularly on her last 25 years as a Moose Member.

Harriet and her husband, Henry, who passed away three years ago, worked diligently for 18 years to make a success of the annual Moose Feather party. The money raised was put into a special fund to be used for parties for member's children throughout the years.

PAST GOVERNORS PRESENT who added anecdotes to the program were Art Anderson, Ron Polson, Dick Jorgensen, Les Sperling, Al Ballenger, Homer Toft and current governor, Dave Zickus.

Also contributing memories were Mildren Gillum, May Palmer, Gladys Schroeder, Jerri Polson, Shirley Gehrls, Rosemarie Hadley, Erna Toft, Judy Page, June Ballenger and Dorothy Tralewski, Stephanie Polson, Norma Lowe and the current senior regent, Judy Cook.

Those sharing the head table were members of

Gibsons win district titles

Two Antioch High School wrestlers, brothers Jon and Marvin Gibson, won district championships here last Saturday.

Jon triumphed at 98 pounds and Marvin at 119. Both qualified for the sectional tournament to be held at Barrington this Friday and Saturday.

Also qualifying for Coach Ted DeRousse's Antioch team was Gene Lehn, who placed second in the district at 155 pounds.

It wasn't one of the Antioch team's best meets. Only a week earlier the Sequoits had edged Grant for the conference title.

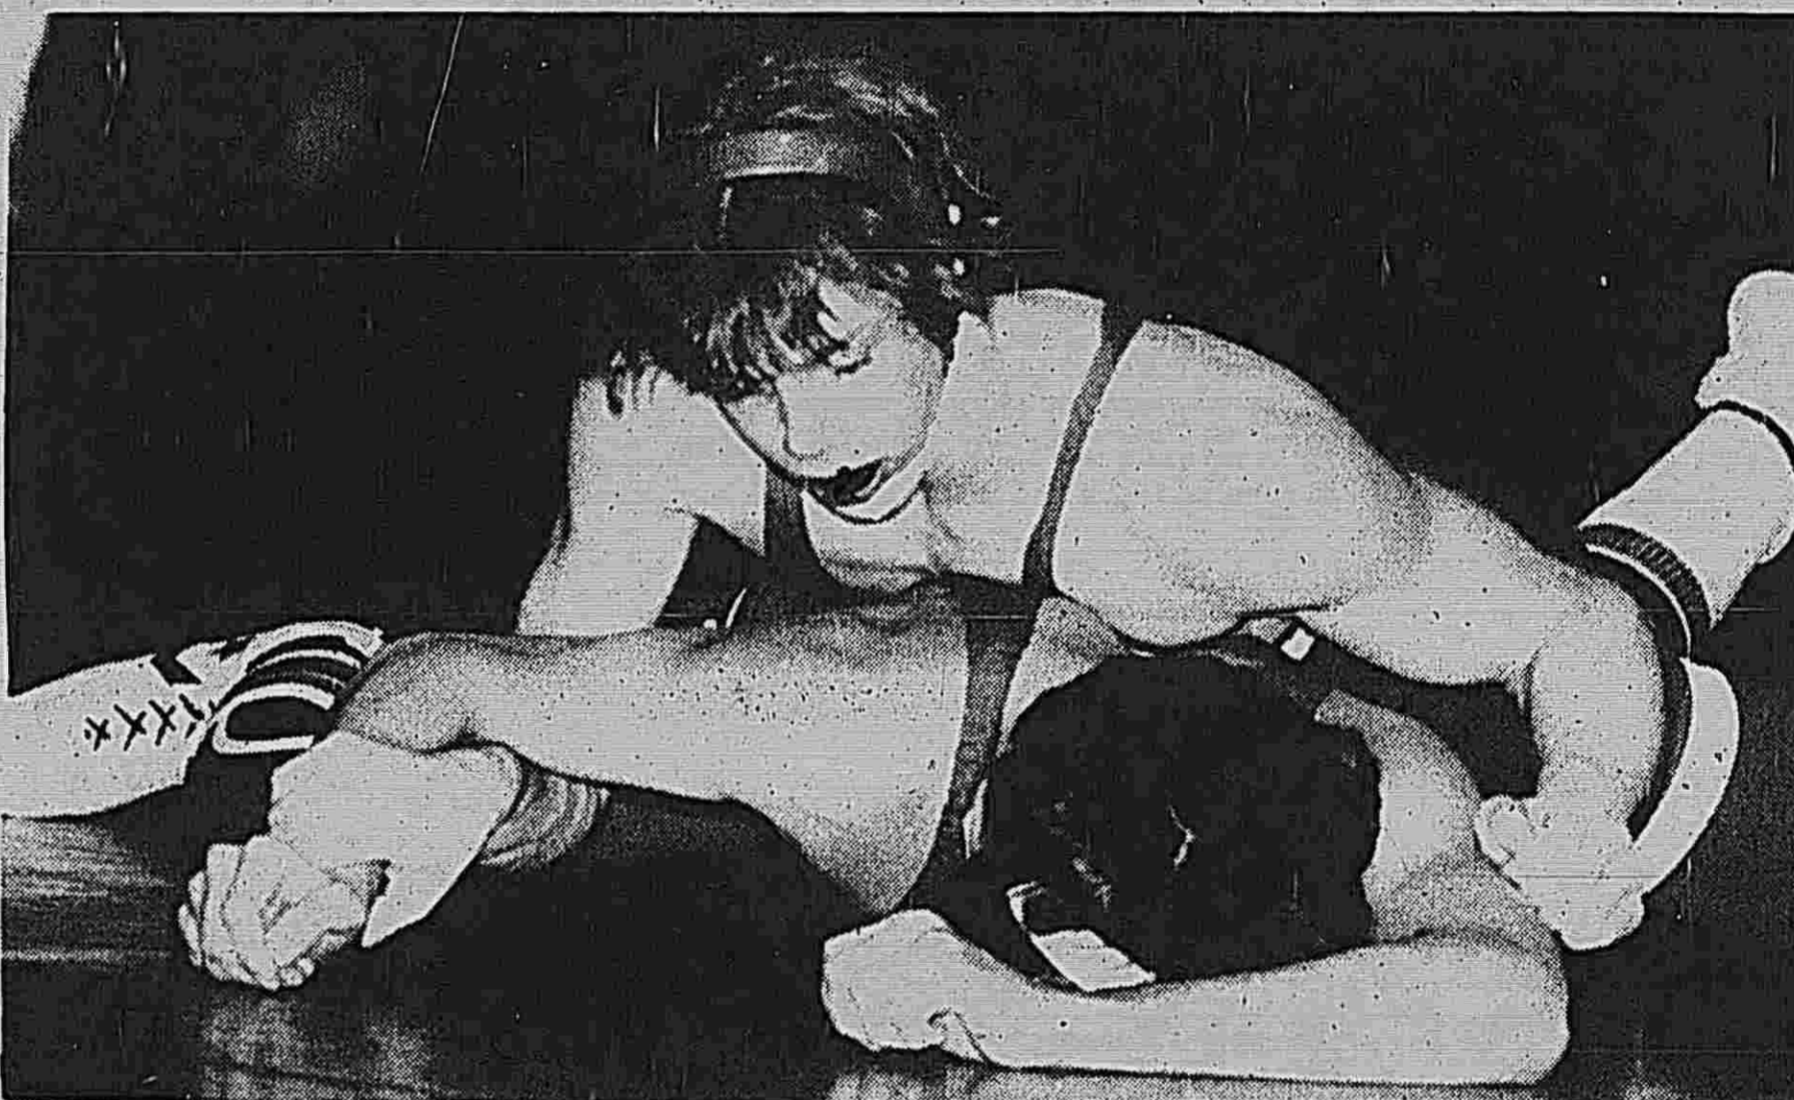

But in the district meet Grant piled up 147½ points while Antioch tied Round Lake for second with 74½. Eight teams competed.

Nine Grant wrestlers advanced to the sectional meet.

"It always seems that the team that places second in the conference meet comes back and wins the district," DeRousse said. "We were emotionally down and didn't wrestle well. What can you say about Grant? They were just super."

Marvin Gibson beats Tom Scott of Grant at 119 pounds to qualify for this weekend's sectional tournament at Barrington.

Gene Lehn of Antioch, on top, finished second at 155 pounds to earn a sectional wrestling berth.

7th graders from Emmons clinch title

The Emmons seventh-grade basketball team clinched the Des Plaines-Fox Valley Conference championship by defeating three opponents last week. The Raiders' record is now 11-0 in conference and 15-3 overall.

In a 41-14 victory over second place Spring Grove, Emmons was led by Craig Sheedlo with 11 points. Tim Hartokolis with 10 and Steve Haase with 8. Emmons opened a 13-0 first quarter lead and was never challenged.

A well-balanced scoring attack helped the Raiders to a 36-11 win over Lotus. Craig Sheedlo again led in scoring with 7. Luke Kuligowski, Frank Mahar, and Hartokolis added 6, and John Mahar chipped in 5.

Todd Wilson was the dominant player in the 56-23 triumph over Newport as he dished out 7 assists and dominated the defensive end of the floor. Sheedlo again led scorers with 14, followed by Haase with 10, and Hartokolis and Kirk Vogt with 8.

Sports Shorts

The Emmons grade school basketball team is hosting the Des Plaines-Fox Valley conference tournament this week.

Semifinal games will be played at 7 and 8:15 p.m. Thursday with the championship round scheduled at 4 and 5:15 p.m. Friday.

The Raiders recently defeated Spring Grove 45-11 as Steve Sheedlo scored 12 points. Then, Emmons beat Lotus 60-17 with Chris Vogt scoring 16.

In a game at Newport, Emmons won 26-10 with Sheedlo leading the scorers with 12 points and Bob Thain getting 11.

THE EMMONS RAIDERS (above) won the third place trophy in an eight-team basketball tournament for eighth graders. The host team, Antioch Upper Grade School, won the title. Emmons, coached by Mike Mitchell, came out of the tournament with a season record of 12-6. Mitchell said Rick Ranney directed the Emmons offense and played "his best games of the season." Steve Sheedlo scored 14 points in a win over Lake Villa and Al Coons, a 5-foot-10 eighth grader, seized 18 rebounds in a victory over Round Lake.

Many a man's idea of charity is to give unto others the advice he can't use himself.

Forecasters have a field day

Are there any basketball experts in Antioch? Would you settle for 10?

The Sequoit varsity beat Warren by 8 points in the big game here last Friday and two forecasters were absolutely right in last week's Antioch News basketball contest. Eight others missed by only one point.

Mary Jane Huebner not only predicted an 8-point win over Warren, but she picked Antioch to beat Round Lake by 18 in the tie-breaker. Antioch beat Round Lake by 22 points and Mary Jane wins a $15 gift certificate from Four Squires clothing store.

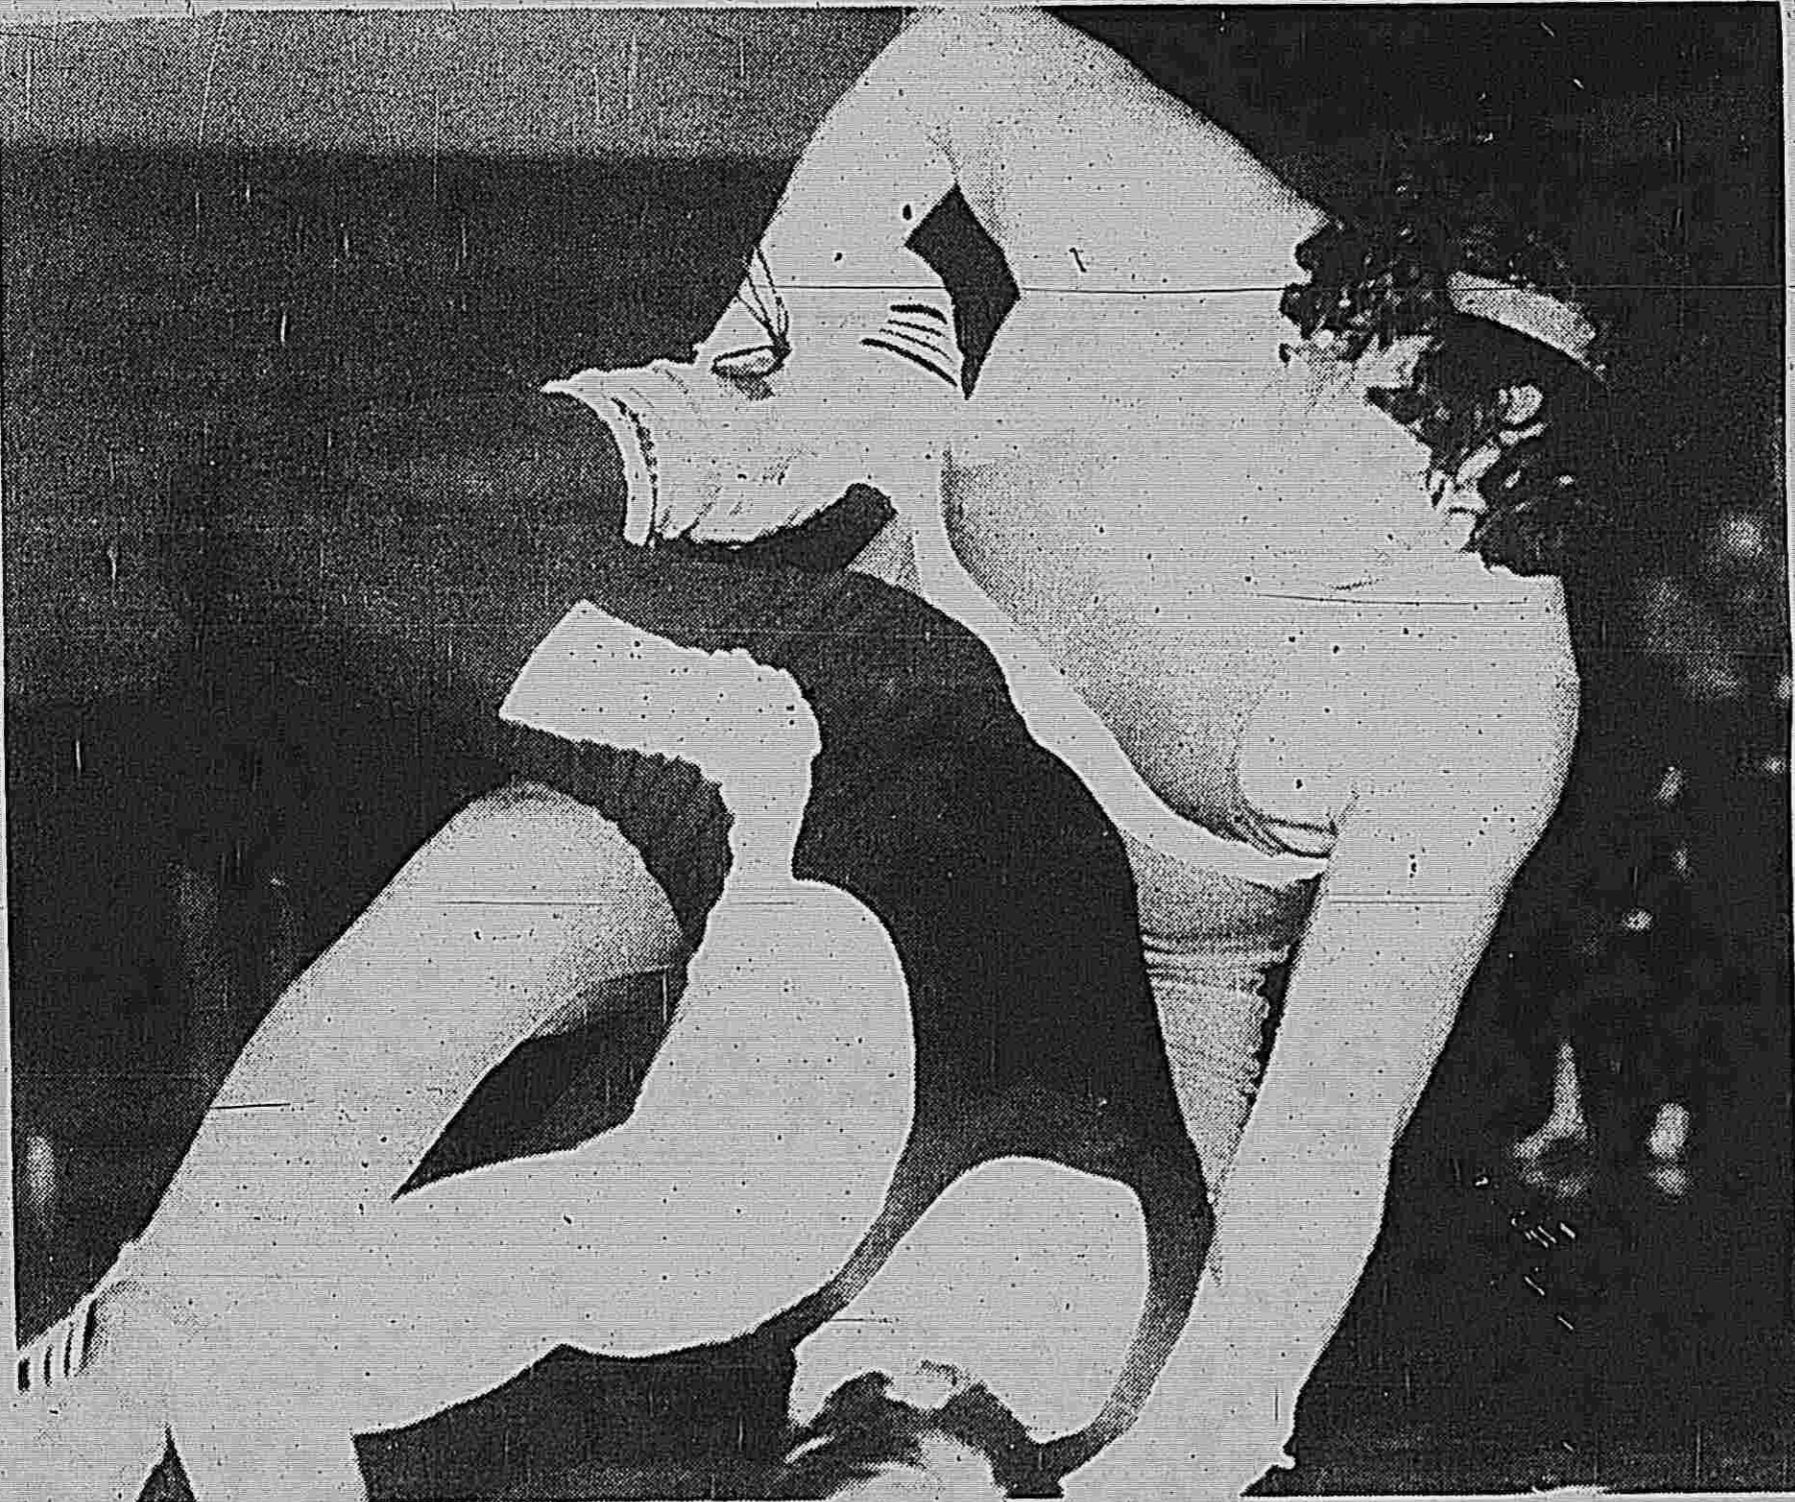

(It will be in the mail this week, Mary Jane.)

GEORGE SCHOENLEBEN ALSO picked Antioch to beat Warren by 8 points and he came close in the tie-breaker, predicting Antioch would rout Round Lake by 17 points. George will receive a $10 gift certificate from Rittenhouse & Embree Lumber Co.

The eight persons who predicted a 7 or 9-point Antioch win over Warren were John Tegelman, Dennis Korjenek Sr., Mike K. Anderson, Lucille Pfarr (guess who's mother), Betsy Houghton, Dan Verkeyn, Shirley Gutowski and Jamie Vasek.

ALL OF THEM came close in the tie-breaker, but three hit it right on the head -- Antioch by 22 over Round Lake. They were Jamie Vasek, Shirley Gutowski and Dan Verkeyn.

Third prize last week was a $5 gift certificate from The Piggy Bank Discount Store. Well, we're just going over to see Dave Zickus and buy two more gift certificates ... so each of the three can have one.

ANTIOCH'S HEAVYWEIGHT wrestling star, Rich Packert, almost won a sectional tournament berth, but not quite. A conference champion, Packert placed third in the district meet here.

Sequoits now 13-0 in conference

"What can you say about a team with a 13-0 record in conference play?" asked Roger Andrews, Antioch High's basketball coach.

Then he answered his own question:

"Just super!"

The Sequoits boosted their league record to 13-0 by getting past Warren 59-51 last Friday and routing Round Lake, as expected, 68-46, on Saturday.

The Warren game was a big test. Warren was 9-2 in the conference and the only team that could stop Antioch from clinching at least a share of the championship. The Waukegan News-Sun picked Antioch by only one point.

TWO MORE GAMES await the Sequoits this weekend. Grayslake (3-10) will be here Friday night at 8 o'clock and, on Saturday, Antioch travels to Fox Lake for an 8 p.m. game with Grant's Bulldogs (5-8).

The Grayslake game will be "Parents Night" for the Antioch team. Moms and Dads will be honored guests.

The Sequoits can wrap up a clear conference title by winning.

ANTIOCH HAS A TEAM full of stars this year, so it's hard to single out players. Most of the key men are lads who gained excellent experience by playing as starters in their junior season. Now, they are the best of the 12 teams in the Northwest Suburban Conference.

Against Warren, Brian Andrews hit for 16 points, including 12 of 13 free throw attempts. Bill Dubek made 9 of 11 free throws and wound up with 16 points while Tracy Sodman scored 12. Sodman and Tim Huebner did their usual fine jobs of rebounding.

There wasn't much shooting in the game. Antioch got off only 35 field goal attempts but made 17 (almost half) of them. Warren committed 25 fouls and Antioch turned them into 25 points in 30 chances at the free throw line.

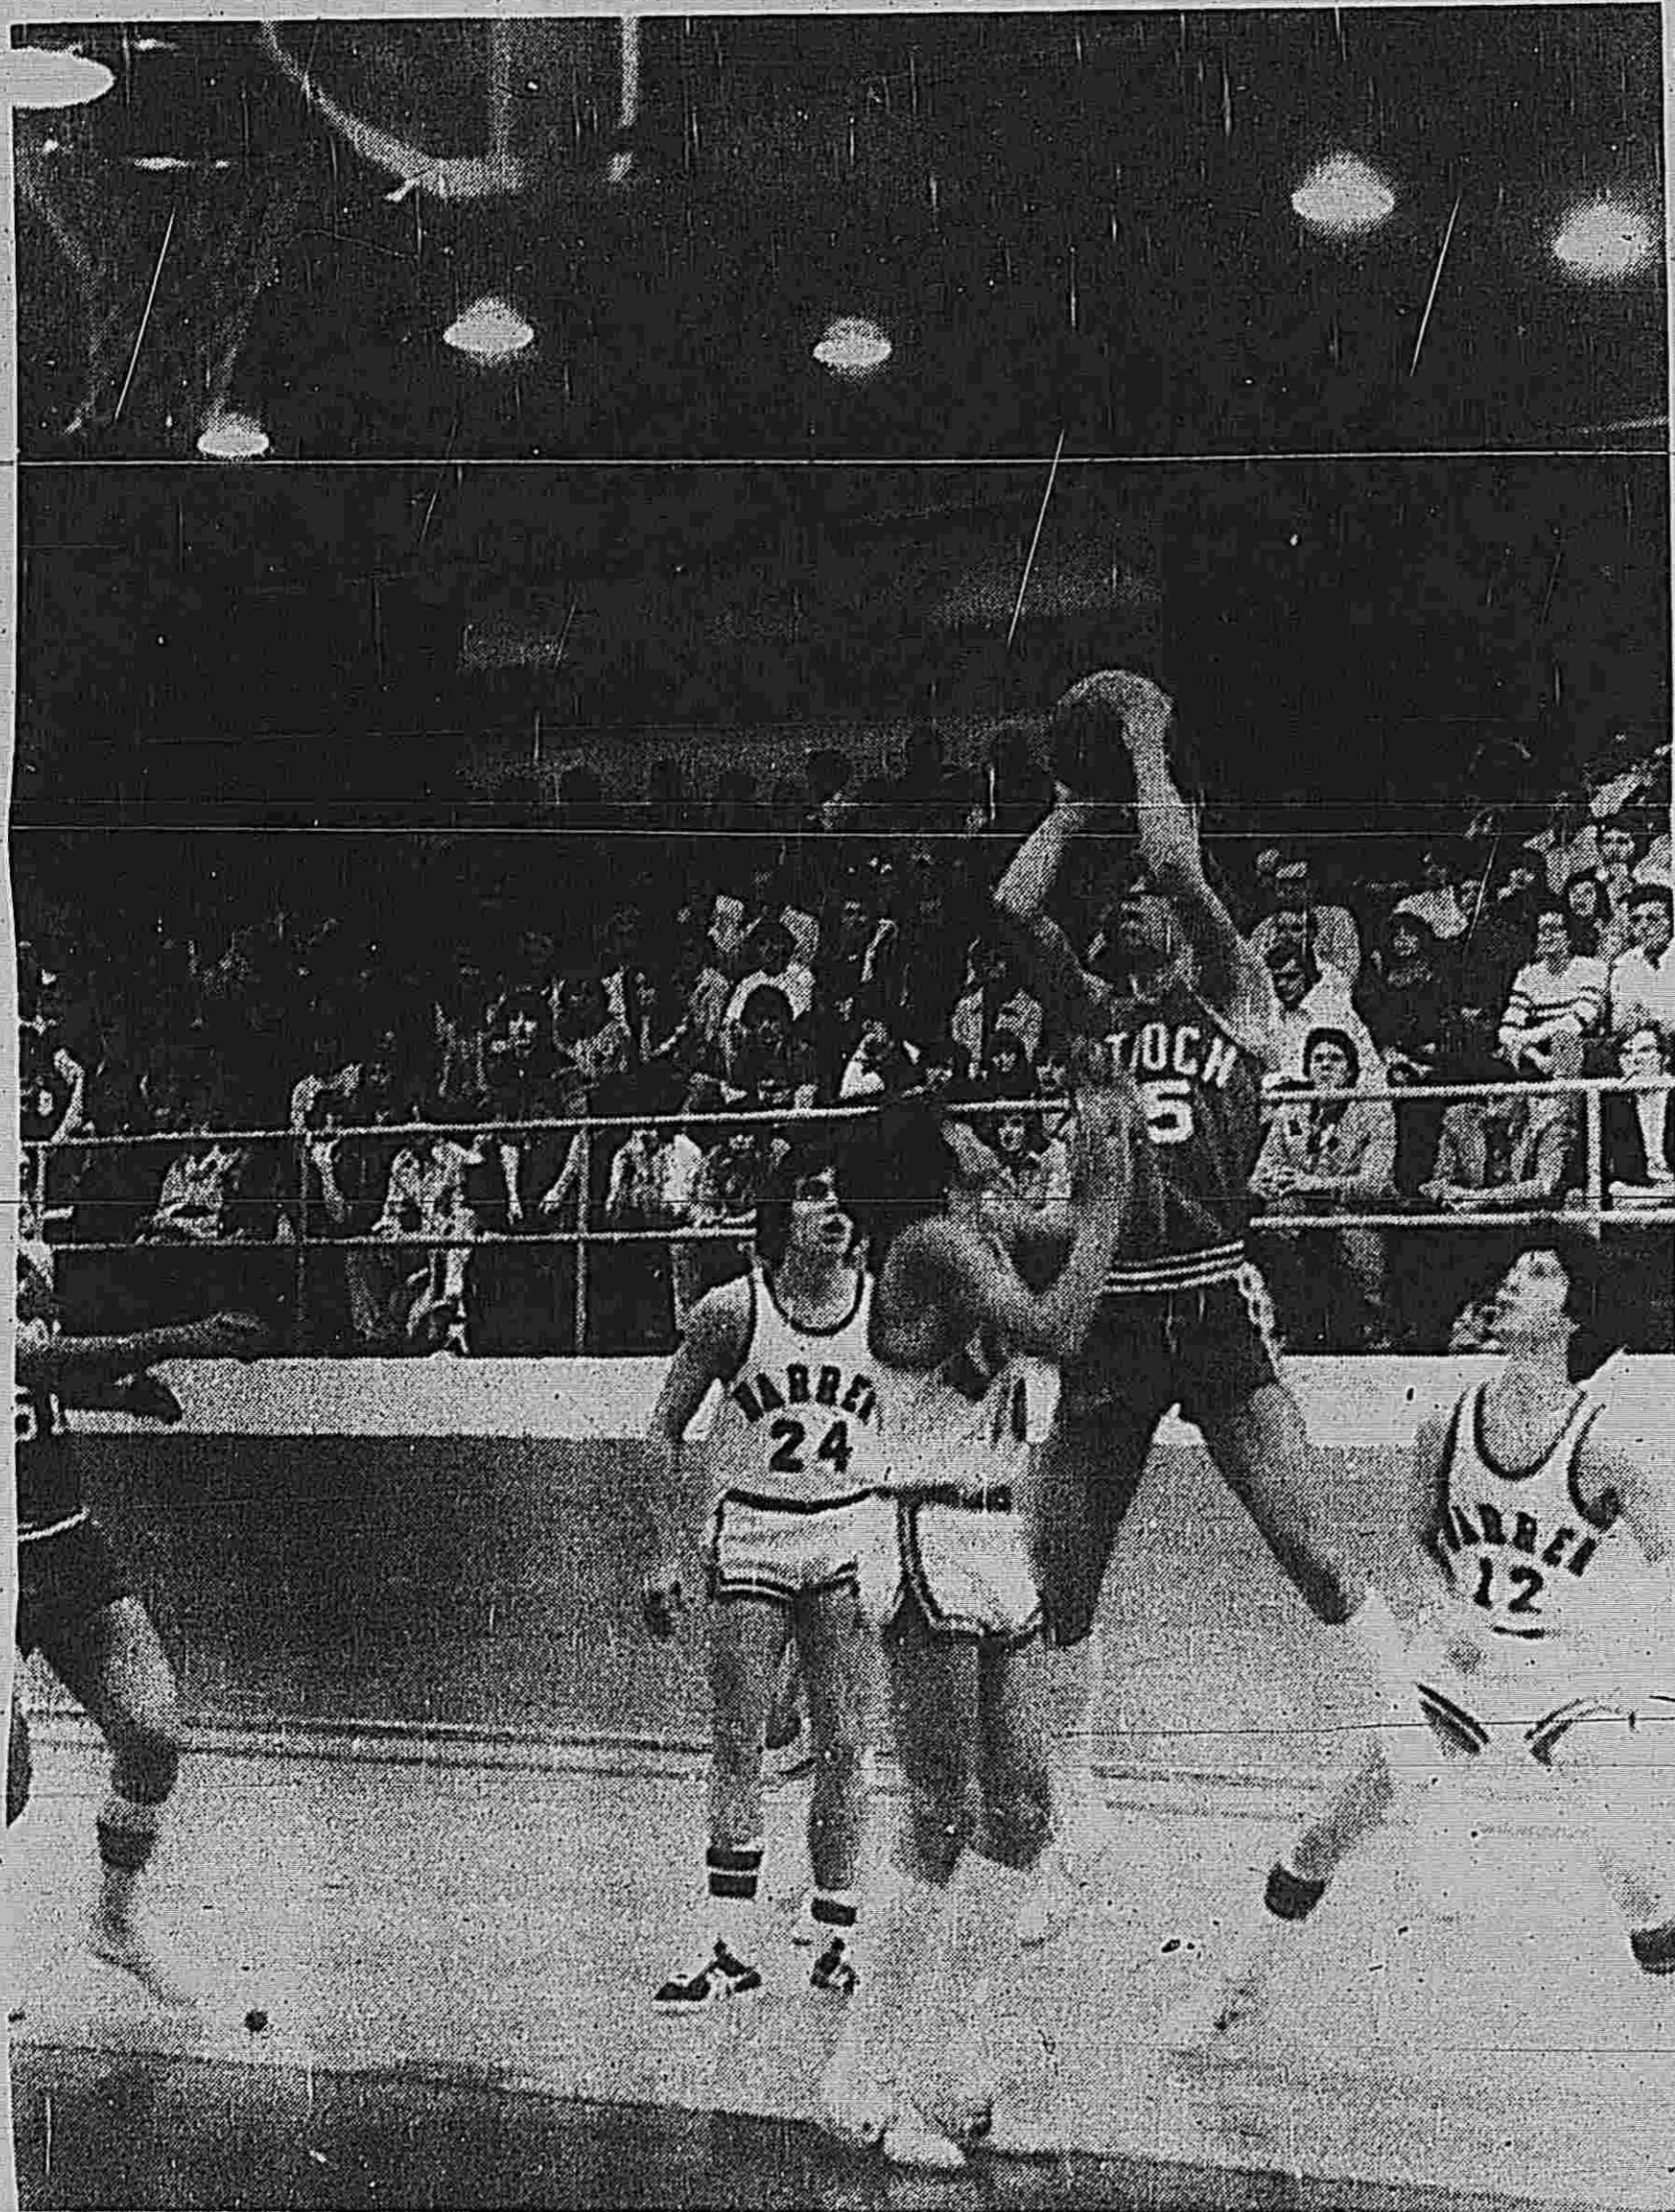

WARREN GOT AS CLOSE as four points in the second half and Tim Huebner, who was playing an outstanding game for Antioch, fouled out. But his brother, Tom, and Roger Korjenek, came off the bench and, according to Coach Andrews, "did an excellent job of helping the team."

In the final moments Brian Andrews' deadly free throw shooting and Bill Dubek's four free throws in the closing seconds kept Warren at bay.

"I am very proud of this team," said Coach Andrews. "They have worked hard to achieve their goals."

BILL DUBEK'S FINE shooting helped Antioch trim Round Lake. One of the county's leading scorers, averaging about 20 points a game, Dubek got 18 last Saturday.

John Eder was hot, too, and finished with 16 points while Tim Huebner scored 13. Brian Andrews pulled down 13 rebounds and had six assists. Tim Huebner collected 12 rebounds and Sodman 10.

THE SCORING ABILITY of senior Bill Dubek helped carry Antioch past Warren and Round Lake last weekend. The Sequoits are now assured of at least a tie for the conference title. They're three games ahead with three league games to play and are expected to wrap up a clear championship when they host Grayslake here Friday night. (Photo by Andy Dugenske.)
